CREDENHILL PARISH COUNCIL NEWSLETTER

Following are a few points I would like to bring to your attention:

Parish Meetings

The next Parish meeting is to be held on Wednesday 14th December at 7.30pm at the Youth and Resource centre (preschool) all members of the public are encouraged to attend.

Litter collector/handyperson

I am pleased to welcome Craig Powell as the new litter collector and handy person. I would also like to thank on behalf of the parish council Roger Shutt as the outgoing litter collector and wish him well with his future plans.

Parish website

The parish website is a good source of local information. www.credenhill-pc.org.uk. The website includes contact details, planning applications, local photographs, minutes from parish meetings and much more.

Precept

I am happy to report there will be no increase in the precept for next year.

The Queen's Diamond Jubilee Weekend

The main programme will take place from Saturday 2nd June to Tuesday 5th June 2012 with celebratory activities throughout the United Kingdom. Credenhill parish council are discussing ideas for our village to participate in. More information will follow.

Flood Alleviation Scheme

As you will be aware the work at the flood alleviation site is now coming to an end. The car park was recently resurfaced and the parish council are now arranging for the finishing touches to be completed. The changing rooms on Roman Park will also be completed soon; the parish council are looking at a number of measures to ensure the safety of this facility. I would like to thank all those involved especially the councillors who have given up much of their free time to help complete this project.

Christmas Greetings

On behalf of the members and staff of our Parish Council may I wish all parishioners a Happy & Peaceful Christmas and a Prosperous New Year

Andrew Round
Chairman of the Parish Council

Dear Friends,

Let me introduce myself! I am married to Trevor who farms sheep and corn in Dorstone where we are just finishing off building a new farmhouse to serve as a base for Trevor and as a getaway for me to escape to on my days off! We have two grown up sons, Dan and Benji, and two grandchildren whom we adore! I enjoy gardening and walking the dog (Toby is a small, brown, noisy Irish terrier), and shopping! Please don't be shy about coming to see me and getting to know me better – I am quite friendly! I am very much looking forward to getting to know you all as well.

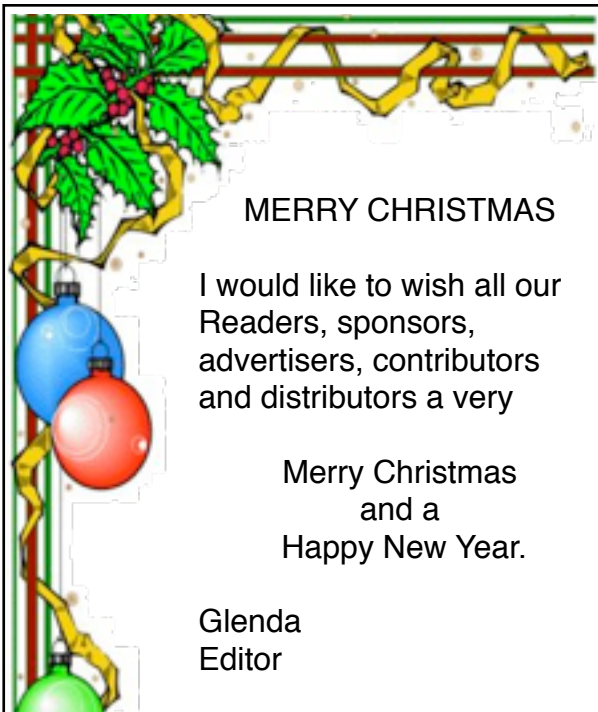

I write this just after Remembrance Sunday, a time when we were looking back and remembering those who have been affected by conflicts around our troubled world, and at the same time I've been looking forward to becoming your new vicar! As a Royal British Legion Branch Secretary, I have had to be particularly well organised over the Remembrance weekend to enable various parades and church services to run smoothly. It was all about being well prepared. As December comes, we will be beginning preparations for Christmas, and we all hope that our Christmas celebrations will go smoothly, so we need to be well prepared for that, too. That is what Advent is about. It is about preparation – preparing for the coming Christ who is the Light in our dark and troubled world of sin, pain and turmoil. So as you decorate your homes, the lights on trees and candles remind us of Jesus, who brings love, joy and peace into the dark places of our lives. And it will be a good time for me to meet some of you at various Christmas events and services – please do come along!

A huge thank you to Angie, Snowy and Mike for all that they have done to keep the parishes running so well over the last twelve months. Angie will be taking a bit of a break for a few months to recover! So from now on if you need anything church related, please ask me! The vicarage number is 01432 760 443, or email rana.james@virgin.net.

Trevor and I wish you all every blessing for a peaceful and joyful Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year!

Rana Davies-James

MERRY CHRISTMAS

I would like to wish all our Readers, sponsors, advertisers, contributors and distributors a very

Merry Christmas
and a
Happy New Year.

HOW SAD!

I heard something today which made me very sad, the beautiful little church at Stretton Sugwas was subjected to a mindless, greedy attack.

Firstly all of the oil which is used to heat the church was stolen from the storage tank outside. As if that was not enough the following day these criminals returned to steal the heavy wooden gates from the porch.

The oil can be replaced but those lovely gates cannot, they were the gateway to the tranquility of the garden of remembrance beyond where members of my family rest. They were the gates we went through for mine and my children's and grandson's christenings.

Why do people so thoughtlessly destroy others memories? Maybe one day they will lose something precious and they may understand how sad their actions are.

Betty

The CCN is kindly delivered to you by the following people:

Vivien Ball, Barbara Brown, Sian Gregory, Emma Jones, June Jones, Lance Richardson, Vicky Rossiter, Betty Tolson and Margaret Tyler.

Ding! Dong! It's The Holiday Season

This wonderful time of year means different things to different people, for most it is an opportunity to spend time with family and friends, to share the season with those we love. But do spare a thought for those less fortunate at this time of year. Drop in on your neighbours who live alone, put a few pence in the collection box for charity and most of all smile at everyone you meet, it costs nothing, exercises the muscles in your face and makes other people happy. Some may look at you a little strangely but it works. On behalf of Credenhill Hall Committee may I wish you all Seasons greetings and a Happy New Year!

In January in your local Community Hall a chance to get Fit and Healthy with a new group starting on a Friday morning 9a.m to 11a.m from 20th January. New Year, New You, an ideal opportunity to start as you mean to go on ideal for busy parents or anybody with time and the inclination to get the most out of life. Richard Danks Fit and Healthy Clinic is coming to Credenhill for you.

Don't forget if you have an event coming up and would like to hold it in a pleasant, light, airy hall with a large outside grassed area [big enough for a marquee] then come along and have a look at Credenhill Community Hall. We can give you details of license holders who will provide a bar for your function if you need one. What is more it will not break your budget! Please contact us for more information.

Magna and Young Magna

DECEMBER AND JANUARY

Seasons Greetings and Happy 2012 to you all

First let's hark back to October when our second original play of 2011 had its debut at the Powell Theatre. 'Echoes' was a tense thriller, with some amazing performances from its cast of talented actors, and had excellent reviews from Louise Hickey, West Midlands area representative of NODA. What was even more unexpected for all concerned was the presentation by Louise of an award for the best play in the West Midlands region for 2010, given for our portrayal of 'Fen' by Caryl Churchill. Well done Magna, after 32 years you still manage to surprise and delight your audiences with the challenging plays you perform

Never ones to rest on their laurels Magna is now in rehearsal for its annual Pantomime this time the timeless traditional tale of the beautiful young lady who loses a slipper and wins the heart of a prince, can you bear to miss it?

'CINDERELLA'

Our annual panto is always well received by our audiences and this year will be no exception as it is the classic story of 'Cinderella' performed at Royal National College January 26th to 28th 2012. Profits donated to R.N.C. our regular charity. Lions hosting a Gala night on Friday for children in the Hereford area. Wheelchair friendly access and seating.

Princes, Fairies, hard up Barons, wicked stepmothers and nasty sisters are some of the characters you will meet in this hilarious adventure in Panto land. As always Cinders will get her man but not until you have sighed, laughed, clapped and sung your way through the perfect family entertainment, along with a cast of talented actors and actresses from your own village.

MAGNA PRESENTS

QUIZ NIGHT

Thank you to those who supported the Quiz evening in Credenhill Community Hall last Saturday.

Thanks also to James and Sally who devised the local quiz, what a lot of research they put in and what a lot we learnt about our village. We had a fun evening and made £100.00 towards Hall funds.

Credenhill Community Hall is a charity and we rely on such fundraising to help improve it for the users. It belongs to our community so please support us.

CREDENHILL FRIENDSHIP CLUB

Well here we are again entering into the festive spirit, my how this past year has flown.

We were lucky enough to go on two trips. In June we went to Swansea and then on to the Mumbles, we were fortunate to have lovely weather that day.

In September members chose to go and see the new Pier at Weston-Super-Mare. Oh dear! the weather was not kind, very windy with showers, but that did not deter folk walking to the end of the Pier and some even brave enough walked down to the sea edge, yes the tide was in (still a long walk though). Getting on the bus it looked as though all the Ladies had been to the same hairdresser and been given the windswept look, it was all great fun.

The past year we had had some very interesting guest speakers, games of skittles, quizzes one of which was a photograph quiz of Credenhill done by Snowy, made you realise what a great village we live in. And I for one will not forget the Beetle Drive.

The Taste For Adventure have also invited members to lunch on Wednesdays and various trips etc throughout the year, so thank you Lynn for everything.

Now we look forward to our Christmas Dinner at Burghill Golf Club on December 1st.

All members would like to wish everyone a Very Happy Christmas and also thank the Editor, Glenda and back up team for all their hard work over the past year.

Merry Christmas

LIBRARY SERVICES

Due to the closure of the mobile library service many people are unable to use the library facilities, because of ill health, disabilities, age etc. it is not always possible to get into town.

Several villagers have been looking at the possibility of setting up a small library service probably once a month or more frequently if the need arose – unsure of format this will take at the moment, it could be a permanent siting with a wide choice of books, Tapes, CD's etc or a coffee morning/ afternoon with a small selection and the ability to order any for the following month. This will rather depend on the response of villagers for this kind of service.

Volunteers will be needed to arrange collection, issue books, run tea facilities etc. It would take approximately 2 people per month to run and 1 on standby. Hopefully if enough volunteers then you would only be needed 2 or 3 times a year!!!!

If there are any suggestions on how this facility could be put into practise, location, type, when, etc all would be welcome.

Please contact Glenda (Editor) – (details on back page) to register your interest in using this service or becoming a volunteer. We need to know if this is a viable option before we can continue.

Where? At the Simpson Hall, Burghill

When? All performances start at 7.30 p.m.

What's on?

Friday 2nd December: "Wild Target" (12)

Victor Maynard is a middle-aged, solitary assassin, who lives to please his formidable mother, despite his own peerless reputation for lethal efficiency. His professional routine is interrupted when he finds himself drawn to one of his intended victims, Rose. He spares her life, unexpectedly acquiring in the process a young apprentice, Tony. Believing Victor to be a private detective, his two new companions tag along, while he attempts to thwart the murderous attentions of his unhappy client. Black British comedy at its best with great performances from Bill Nighy, Emily Blunt and Eileen Atkins

Friday 6th January: "Water for Elephants" (12)

Academy Award® winner Reese Witherspoon and Robert Pattinson give mesmerising performances in this visually stunning and epic romantic drama, which tells the powerfully emotional story of two people who pursue their love against all odds, rules and conventions, set in the alluring and enigmatic world of a travelling circus.

Friday 3rd February: "Jane Eyre" (PG)

Jane Eyre flees Thornfield House, the vast and isolated estate where she works as a governess for Adele, a child under the custody of Thornfield's brooding master, Edward Rochester. As Jane looks back upon the tumultuous events that led to her escape, from her childhood as an orphan to her education at the cruel charity school to which she was consigned, she realises that she must return to Thornfield – to secure her own future, and to come to terms with the terrible secret Rochester had hoped to hide from her forever. Starring Judi Dench

Ice-creams and tea and coffee are available in the interval.

It's a Christmas Cake, but not as you know it

Here is an exquisite alternative Christmas cake recipe.

And if you worry that you may not be able to douse this cake with brandy, you can relax as this cake MUST be doused.

8 oz butter	4 oz cherries (halved)
8 oz caster sugar	4 oz walnuts (roughly chopped)
10 oz plain flour	4 oz almonds (roughly chopped)
1 tsp baking powder	6 oz crystallised ginger (cut up roughly)
5 eggs	6 oz crystallised or glace pineapple (cut up roughly)
1/2 tsp salt	1/2 tsp almond essence
Grated rind of 1 lemon	1/2 tsp vanilla essence
4 oz mixed peel (chopped)	Brandy for drizzling

Coat all fruit and nuts with some of the flour.

Line an 8 " or 9" tin with three layers of greaseproof paper inside and some brown paper outside.

Cream the butter and sugar.

Add the eggs one at a time with a tablespoon of flour, beating well each time.

Fold in the sieved flour, baking powder, salt, floured fruit and nuts, almond and vanilla essences. Mix well.

Bake for 2 1/2 or 3 hours at 300F, gas 2, 150c.

Cool in the tin, un-mould on a wire rack and when cold store in an airtight container.

Pierce the cake all over with a skewer and drizzle brandy all over.

Can be covered with marzipan and icing just like a normal Christmas cake.

And now something different to pour over your Christmas pudding,
a cold sauce you can prepare in advance:

1 egg yolk

2 tbsp rum or brandy

2 tbsp icing sugar (sieved)

1 stiff egg white

1/2 pint whipped cream

Grated rind of 1 lemon

Beat the egg yolk with the sugar and rum or brandy.

Add the stiff egg white.

Add the whipped cream, lemon rind and refrigerate.
