The Vicar's Letter

Dear Friends,

"Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came towards Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, "Lord, save me!"

Matthew 14:29-30

Peter ended up as one of the major founders of the Church. Yet when he was with Jesus that day, he was afraid, and he doubted. He was just like us, spectacularly achieving the miraculous and then spectacularly messing up! He had it, but he lost it. I'm sure that is familiar for many of us. We are all human - just as Peter was - and we all are capable of achieving great things when we focus on God, but when we take our eyes off him and see the opposition around us, doubt creeps in and we fail. You can't put your trust in God unless there's a chance he might fail you - otherwise it wouldn't be trust. You can't have faith without doubt.

A psychologist once surveyed the congregation of a large successful church. It was the kind of church where God seemed to be doing amazing things and all the people had their lives sorted out. But in the privacy of the questionnaire, over 80 per cent admitted to serious doubts. For the vast majority of these people, no one else in the church knew about their struggles, because as they looked out at this wonderful, successful congregation, they imagined they must be the only one among thousands who didn't get it. You can't help thinking "If only they'd been honest with each other.."

Miguel de Unamuno wrote "Faith which does not doubt is dead faith."

Telling yourself and God the truth can be a hard experience, but you cannot deal with your doubts until you face them head on. Sometimes writing God a letter allows you a comfortable way of expressing things that don't come easily. He will save you if you cry out to him so I hope that you manage to find an opportunity to be honest with God so that he can help you find your faith again.

With every blessing,

Rana

Sunday 15 October

Time: 11am

Harvest Festival followed by a
Hot Harvest Lunch

Everyone Welcome

Café Church in September was based on saying sorry and forgiveness.

We thought about what saying sorry means and the things we are sorry for. Libby and Izzy lit the Creed candles for us and we had shortbread and cinnamon whirls for refreshments. Rev Rana offered Communion for those who wanted it after the service.

Café Church is Church in the Community. If you find Church difficult or have trouble getting up to church then do consider joining us for a more informal approach.

CREDENHILL FRIENDSHIP CLUB

I hope everyone enjoyed the Supper and Quiz at the last gathering.

Our next Meeting will be on Thursday 5 October will be ‘Fun and Games’ at 7.30pm.

For your diaries/calendars the Christmas Party at the Bay Horse

TRANSFORM YOUR HOME WITH COACH HOUSE INTERIORS

At Coach House interiors we span four generations who have all worked in the soft furnishing industry. There is not a window, bed, piece of furniture, floor or wall that we have not dressed in one way or another throughout the last 60 years! Fashions come and go in our world, and we are proud to say that we can create any soft furnishing project from every decade.

Whether you want swags and tails, traditional lampshades, quilted bedspreads, roman blinds, the latest smart technology or shutters at your window, we will listen to your requirements, work to your budget and oversee every step of your scheme.

We can dress four poster beds, create half testers or coronas from scratch, make any shape of headboard or stool you have in mind, recover beloved antique kidney shaped dressing tables or completely update a 'tired' piece of furniture, whilst we are a team of interior designers we are also trained seamstresses and upholsterers.

Any scheme we undertake has a starting point. If you are looking for paint or wallpaper ideas, it usually has to tie in with an existing plan. If you wish to keep your existing soft furnishings, we can work with you to refresh your rooms with either our extensive wallpaper collection or our expertise in selecting a paint colour to bring your room to life.

We can re-build sentimental pieces, transform a previous owners house into your 'dream home' and work with you to bring the most awkward spaces into your desired aspirations. Helping you transform your home into the new living space you wish for.

Most importantly though, above all the experience we can bring, we pride ourselves on listening to your thoughts on your project and working with you to achieve this.

We are a dedicated team, who pull together here at Coach House Interiors, to work with you from your initial contact with us whether by e-mail, phone call or visit, and take any idea you present to us; from your initial contact right through to completion.

We look forward to seeing you in person and working with you in either your home or business to achieve your exacting requirements.
