The Vicar's Letter

Dear Friends,

My mum used to say of my dad, that he was 'so heavenly minded he was no earthly use!' He was a country clergyman and very theologically minded. He seemed to consider everything in a theological or a spiritual way, which often frustrated and infuriated us all. But he was a lovely and godly man who had a real pastoral heart and would give away the food off our table to feed someone who was hungry.

When God asks us to consider spiritual matters, he points us to Jesus. In his earthly ministry, Jesus served the needs of those he came across. He guided them, listened to them, fed them, healed them, and even stooped to wash their feet! Jesus never degraded or ignored the troubles, sorrows, and needs of others, and Jesus remains just as caring and compassionate today through those who follow him.

We, as God's children, should set our hearts on the things of heaven, and also set our hands on his continuing work here on earth. In this way, we will nurture an 'others attitude' just as Jesus did. I know that many of you give regularly to the Food Bank and other deserving charities; some of you keep a caring eye on those who are elderly or living alone. We are the representatives of Jesus on earth. We endeavour to serve others as he did, and in his name. There is a familiar prayer written by St Teresa of Ávila, a Carmelite nun born in 1515, that nudges us to take the action that Jesus wants us to:

*Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks compassion on this world,
Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good,
Yours are the hands, with which he blesses all the world.
Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are his body.
Christ has no body now but yours, no hands, no feet on earth but yours, yours are the eyes with which he looks compassion on this world.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours.*

May God inspire you to take the action needed to ensure his work continues here on earth. And may he bless you as you do.

With every blessing,

Rana

Schoolreaders 10 Years

improving literacy • increasing life chances

Volunteers needed to listen to children read in Herefordshire!

Schoolreaders is a national child literacy charity that recruits volunteers to go into local primary schools to listen to children read. We are calling out for more volunteers across Herefordshire. If you can spare just an hour a week, you could change a child's life story.

One in four children leave primary school unable to read to the expected standard. This means they are unable to fully access their secondary education which will have a life-long impact on their opportunities.

FANCY DRESS ENCOURAGED. RODEO BULL

Churchwarden's Report July 24

Many thanks to Caroline Martin and Debbie for hosting a coffee morning for church funds. Despite the rain they managed to raise £152.50.

Café Church in June was about the parable of the mustard seed and a celebration of Fathers. Donna told us how Jesus used this story to show us that even if something starts off very small, with nurturing and faith it can grow into something huge and useful. We chatted about what we can do to show that we care for others and made positive reflection jars to help us when we need support. We enjoyed lemon drizzle cake and chocolate brownies. The next Café Church is on July 21st.

The next Messy Church will be on July 13th in Headway from 3-5pm. It will be a continuation of activities based on the story of Moses with sausages and chips and strawberries and ice-cream for tea. Everyone is welcome. Children must be accompanied. If you just wish to join us for tea please arrive at 4.15pm.

Our next Community Event is a Mad Hatters' Tea Party on July 20th at 3pm at Town Well, HR4 7DW, the home of Simon and Justine Peberdy. Everyone is welcome, entry is free. There will be games and stalls based on Alice in Wonderland. Cream Teas, cakes and drinks including Pimms will be available for a donation . If anyone would like to donate plants, bottles, raffle prizes, cakes etc we would be pleased to receive them. Also this is a chance for you to be involved in village activities. If you would like to help please let us know. There will be an opportunity to dress up in Fancy Dress based on characters from Alice or to design and wear a hat. Prizes for the best hat. (Adult/child).

There is a new flower rota in church If anyone would like to donate for flowers for a special event please contact dorrie.coates@aol.com. Jayne Scott will arrange flowers for you or you are welcome to do this yourself.

Donna Jones.

FIT 4 ALL Olympic Workshop

In June we had a visitor from Fit 4 All, who ran an assembly and Olympics themed workshops for all the children.

The workshops are designed to introduce students to the history, values, and spirit of the Olympic Games, through interactive presentations, activities, and athletic challenges inspired by Olympic sports. The aims of the workshops are to inspire teamwork, cultural appreciation, and a love for sports, all while looking forward to the "Greenest Games" in history.

CREDENHILL FRIENDSHIP CLUB

What a fascinating and interesting talk we had at our June meeting. Joanna Jones talked to us about Hearing Dogs for the Deaf, thank you Joanna we really learnt a lot.

July will be another interesting talk by the Rev Penny Littlewood. She will be telling us all about living with her parents in a Castle where they worked.

Usual time 7.30pm but if you can get your drinks in before that it would be great. September Meeting will be fish and chips and a quiz.

TRANSFORM YOUR HOME WITH COACH HOUSE INTERIORS

At Coach House interiors we span four generations who have all worked in the soft furnishing industry. There is not a window, bed, piece of furniture, floor or wall that we have not dressed in one way or another throughout the last 60 years! Fashions come and go in our world, and we are proud to say that we can create any soft furnishing project from every decade.

Whether you want swags and tails, traditional lampshades, quilted bedspreads, roman blinds, the latest smart technology or shutters at your window, we will listen to your requirements, work to your budget and oversee every step of your scheme.

We can dress four poster beds, create half testers or coronas from scratch, make any shape of headboard or stool you have in mind, recover beloved antique kidney shaped dressing tables or completely update a 'tired' piece of furniture, whilst we are a team of interior designers we are also trained seamstresses and upholsterers.

Any scheme we undertake has a starting point. If you are looking for paint or wallpaper ideas, it usually has to tie in with an existing plan. If you wish to keep your existing soft furnishings, we can work with you to refresh your rooms with either our extensive wallpaper collection or our expertise in selecting a paint colour to bring your room to life.

We can re-build sentimental pieces, transform a previous owners house into your 'dream home' and work with you to bring the most awkward spaces into your desired aspirations. Helping you transform your home into the new living space you wish for.

Most importantly though, above all the experience we can bring, we pride ourselves on listening to your thoughts on your project and working with you to achieve this.

We are a dedicated team, who pull together here at Coach House Interiors, to work with you from your initial contact with us whether by e-mail, phone call or visit, and take any idea you present to us; from your initial contact right through to completion.

We look forward to seeing you in person and working with you in either your home or business to achieve your exacting requirements.
